

I hereby complain to the FCC about the improper and unethical decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their decision does not meet the standard of operating for the public good. This is a partisan decision and is completely inappropriate in a democracy. Why don't they show how President Bush skipped out of Vietnam rather than focus on the actions of a man who stood tall, went where his country asked him to and then seeing a holy hell there had the courage to come back and tell the truth about it. No doubt the Viet Cong used his words to taunt the POW's -both those POW's and Kerry know something that the President was too cowardly to find out first hand - that war really IS hell.

Sinclair is not meeting its requirement to operate in the public interest when they refuse to allow the names of men and women who have DIED for this country yet take exceptional pains to 'expose' a man who tried to stop more men and women from being killed by a long drawn out war in Vietnam.
